

David y Goliat

David and Goliath

Hubo un muchachito llamado David. Era pastor y a diario cuidaba de las ovejas de su padre.

David no era muy grande, ni rico, ni importante, pero amaba a Dios, y Dios tenía algo especial para él.

There once was a young boy named David. He was a shepherd, and every day he took care of his father's sheep. David wasn't big, rich or important, but he loved God, and God had a very special plan for him.

David era muy valiente. Un día, oyó un gruñido detrás de él. ¡Se acercaba un león!

David oró y luego sacó su honda y puso una pequeña piedra en ella. Hizo girar la honda y luego arrojó la piedra al aire, derrumbando al león. Las ovejas estaban a salvo.

David was very brave. One day he heard a snarl behind him. A lion was approaching!

With a prayer to God, David pulled out his sling and put a small stone inside it. He spun his sling round and round, and then the stone flew through the air, knocking the lion down. The sheep were safe again.

En esos días los israelitas estaban en guerra con los filisteos. Los filisteos querían esclavizar al pueblo de Israel. Tres de los hermanos mayores de

David habían ido a pelear en la guerra.

Un día el padre de David lo llamó:

“Ve al campamento donde están tus hermanos, y lléales buena comida preparada por tu madre.”

“Sí, padre” respondió David. Y partió de inmediato.

In those days, the Israelites were at war with the philistines. The philistines wanted to make the people of Israel their slaves. Three of David's older brothers had gone to fight in the war.

One day, David's father called him.

“Go to the army camp where your brothers are, to bring them some of your mother's good food.”

“Yes, Father”, David said. And he set off at once.

Cuando se acercaba al campamento oyó gritos y ruido de armaduras. Subió una colina para ver a qué se debía el alboroto del campamento.

David miró con sorpresa el campamento del ejército filisteo, y vio un filisteo gigante. ¡Fiu! ¡Por lo menos debe de ser el doble de mi tamaño! Pensó David.

As David neared the army camp he could hear loud voices and the clanging of armor. He climbed a nearby hill to see what all the commotion was about.

David's eyes widened as he looked over towards the Philistine army camp and saw a huge Philistine giant. "Wow!" He must be at least twice my size!" David thought.

Entonces el gigante Goliat gritó a voz en cuello: “¡Manden un hombre que pelee conmigo!
Si me derrota seremos sus siervos. Si yo lo mato, ¡ustedes serán nuestros siervos!”

No hubo respuesta del campamento israelita. Todos temían desafiar al poderoso gigante Goliat.

Just then the giant Goliath started shouting at the top of his voice. “Send out a man to fight me, one on one! If he defeats me, then we will be your servants. But if I kill him, then you will be our servants! Ha ha ha ha ha!”

There was no answer from the Israelite camp. Everyone was afraid to challenge the mighty Goliath.

